The Vivid Studios Origin Story

Vivid Studios is the subsidiary of Construction Marketing Inc., a well-established marketing firm based in Sarasota serving construction-industry clients all over the US. The firm saw so much success in its first 13 years of helping construction professionals succeed in a highly-competitive industry that the team decided to expand the firm's efforts to help Florida businesses in all industries market themselves appropriately. Thus, Vivid Studios was born.

The Vivid Studios staff is a team of experienced business professionals, artists, writers, photographers and technology experts who work hard and move quickly to get projects done right, delivering high-quality, effective marketing that allows business owners to focus on running their businesses while leaving the marketing to the marketing experts.
